

Strathspeys

The most indelibly Scottish-sounding of all Celtic tunes, strathspeys are characterized by the frequent use of the “Scots snap” which is an accented pair of notes preceded by a very quick pickup note:

One of the beautiful and remarkable qualities of the Strathspey is that the crisp, rugged rhythmic patterns commence simultaneously within the overall elegance and lightness of the dance style.

Louden’s Bonnie Woods and Braes

Pipe Strathspey

trad. Scottish

Cutty’s Wedding

Pipe Strathspey

trad. Scottish

MacKinnon’s Brook

Strathspey

trad. Scottish

